Michael must carry a suitcase across a foreign country. Going against company rules, he decides to deviate from the route indicated by his GPS and drive through country side roads. During his journey he discovers a girl trapped in the back of a rusty old van, and he's the only one who can save her. Michael decides to pursue the van, even if it means losing his job, and is helped by Ana, a strong-willed young woman who lives in a nearby village.
