Emma, Laila, Raquel, Flor, Lorena, Berta and Gina are very different between them but share a passion: to play hockey. But the Minerva's girl team, their hockey club, is in danger because of the bad results and its president prefers to give his support to the boys team because of their last victories. The girls won't give up: they can count on the creative vision of Anna, their new coach. Anna is one of the best hockey players of the world. She comes back home for recovering from an injury but we will discover that she hides a big secret.
