Who would have said it, when he left his native Lloret de Mar, that Àlex Vidal would be widely known in Madrid as the young, attractive and successful Catalan businessman who was to marry the heiress of one of the greatest fortunes of Spain, Fiona Delás. What nobody suspects is that, in fact, Àlex has been trying to lift his head for some time after ruining himself with a terrible business move. His lies will get bigger and bigger, placing Àlex in increasingly absurd and unjustifiable situations, until he reaches a limit situation that will put him between a rock and a hard place.
